Stewardship 2025 United in Christ

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Psalm 46:7 "The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold."

Pastor Paula Geister-Jones

Our four Sundays of Stewardship have come to an end. Those were some good Sundays at CLC. The Ministry Fair is always fun. Our different boards once again did a great job sharing the various ministries Christ Lutheran is involved in. There is just one thing we would change for next year we would give the Sunday school children more time to check out the games at the various booths. Elizabeth Circle hosted a great Fish Pond and the Youth and Education Boards had Face Painting and The Human Slot Machine. The last Sunday in September was The Blessing of the Animals in the gym. We have never had so many people attend and bring their dogs, cats and rabbits. That Sunday also brought back memories for some folks. We worshipped in a gym between 1990 and the completion of the new sanctuary at our old building in 1997. The first Sunday in October was Quilt Sunday a favorite for many people. The quilts covering the pews make the sanctuary so colorful and for some it marks the beginning of the Christmas shopping season. There were people here already on Wednesday evening to do some shopping. This year the Quilters sold 37 quilts. And the Harvest Fest/Pig Roast/Burning of the Mortgage on the second Sunday in October brought a great crowd to celebrate the burning of our $1.2 million dollar mortgage, enjoy a absolutely delicious Pig Roast and participate in all the great activities we offered. The kids weren't hindered by the colder weather at all. They were in the backyard enjoying the Bounce House and Hayride and people of all ages crafted their hearts out in the large youth room.

Thank you to all who helped make the four weeks of stewardship possible with your volunteer hours and thank you to all who joined in the fun.

NOVEMBER WORSHIP NEWS

Remember to fall back one hour
Saturday Night, November 2nd.

Worship News for November
8:00 a.m. – Traditional Worship
9:15 a.m. – Worship Express

Sunday, November 3: All Saints Sunday with Holy Communion

This is going to be a special Sunday. During both services, we will remember those saints who passed from this life to the next in the past year. Some of our older members will share their wisdom in a video shown before worship services in the Narthex. And we will explore the meaning of that section in the Apostle's Creed where we confess "I believe in the communion of saints." To help us visualize its meaning, young people will be walking around church dressed like saints past, present and future.

Preacher: Pastor Paula

Sunday, November 10: Worship

Widows are everywhere in today's readings. Jesus denounces those scribes who pray impressive prayers but who give relatively little of their hoards. He commends the poor widow who in his view gave far more than the major donors. Jesus doesn't see her simply as an object of compassion or charity. She, like the widow of Zarephath who shares her last bit of food with Elijah, does something of great importance.

Worship with Holy Communion/ New Member Sunday

In the last week of his life, Jesus warned his disciples about the trials that were to come upon them and upon the world. He encourages us not to be alarmed.

Sunday, November 24:

Worship/ Christ the King Sunday

Every year we try to get our heads wrapped around the idea that "Christ the King" is nothing like our earthly rulers. He speaks the truth, but forces no one to listen. But we would be fools not to. Jesus is the one King who truly offers us life.

Preacher: Pastor Paula

Ecumenical Thanksgiving
Evening Worship
Wednesday, November 27th
7:00 p.m.
Covenant Lutheran

Please put the date on the calendar and plan to come. Special music will be provided by people from St. Anne's, Covenant and Christ Lutheran. Pastor Paula will preach.

Advent Beginnings

Sunday, November 24

11:00 a.m. – 1:00 P.M.

Advent is the four Sundays before Christmas, a time spent preparing for the birth of Jesus. Let's do it together on the Sunday before Advent begins. The Youth and Education Ministry Teams are hosting this event for the entire congregation - youth and adults. We will make homemade Christmas Cards, Christmas Decorations and of course frost and decorate Christmas Cookies. We will put up the Christmas trees and, food will be served. On the menu that day will be both kid and adult favorites. A free will donation will be taken to cover the cost. The crafts will be on display in the narthex, Sunday, November 10th and 17th be sure to check them out. Kids, instead of buying something for mom and dad and grandpa and grandma, how about making them a gift?

We Burned the Mortgage

When we burned the mortgage in worship on Sunday, October 13th we still owed $2545 on the building. Well, that debt is now paid off. On the 13th we received $1900 in designated gifts, $858 in profits from the Bake Sale and another $1823 from the Pig Roast. That means we have paid off that debt and have $2136 left over. Thank you CLC! The extra money from October 13th and any additional gifts designated for mortgage will go towards organ repair.

New Member Sunday – November 17, 2024

Are you interested in joining Christ Lutheran? Do you know anyone who is? If so, talk to Pastor Paula, Jen Hoffman or contact the church office at (608)–873–9353. New members will officially be received into our faith community on Sunday, November 17 at both services. New Member Orientation will be Sunday, November 3rd or Sunday, November 10th at 10:15 a.m. in the Conference room off the Narthex. You pick the day that you want to attend based on what works best for you. This is a time to get to know one another and to learn more about the congregation.

HONORING OUR VETERANS BY COLIN HARRINGTON

Last February, I sat at the 150th Anniversary committee meeting, noting ideas about what topics I should cover throughout the year for these articles. For November, I had jotted down “maybe a Thanksgiving/Be grateful theme” and under that, “Turkey/family, breaking bread/Last Super reference(?)”

However, under those thoughts I circled “Veteran’s Day.” I reflected on this more as I thumbed through Christ Lutheran Church’s history binders; Chapter Three is titled “History - World War II.”

While members of Christ Lutheran have served with great dedication and honor throughout peacetime and war, I kept coming back to this era and moment of time in our Church’s and the world’s history. Chapter Three begins with notes from the Bulletin, speaking of letters from home and letters back to the pastor from “Over There.” One such letter, as noted in the November 22nd, 1942, Bulletin said:

“I think of you folks when I sit at our Sunday morning service and am hoping and praying that the time isn’t far off when we can all be back to share your fine services with the folks back in the old home tow. We will give our best for our great country and with God’s help we will be victorious. May God bless and help you in your great work.”

Another bulletin, dated January 24th, 1943, read of a unique Christmas card with a poem titled “Soldier’s Prayer” on it:

“While miles from home at Christmas, Lord,
This soldier’s prayer to you
Is that a realm of peace prevail
To bring Christ’s love anew.

Our erring foe from wrong to right
Restore in thought and deeds.
To give eternal faith and hope,
And fill all human needs.”

One such human need was simply the connection to the congregation. A sad tale in this chapter said a letter was received at the church from a soldier, thanking the congregation for their thoughts, prayers and for the donation of Service Prayer Books. The tragedy was that particular soldier had died days before this was printed in the bulletin. Unfortunately, this was not the only congregational member to give his complete all to a far greater good.

I feel compelled to almost write endlessly about this particular subject. It feels like a fool’s errand to think that any words of thanks can be properly shared in gratitude for the great sacrifices these veterans have had to bear. These wondrous and terrible scars, internal and external, are such that many of us can never truly comprehend.

I can only simply state, thank you and we honor you; once a soldier, always a soldier.

Go and Tell

By Roger Slack

As I finished reading the Gospel of John, after the death and resurrection of Jesus, I can't help but feel the disciples sense of "Now what do we do? We are so used to Jesus leading the way, instructing us on what to do next." All their normalcy was gone. It is the same for so many of us in this congregation who have had a dear loved one pass. "Now what do we do. All my daily normal's are gone". In the last chapter, Peter being practical announces to the rest of them, I'm going fishing". He probably didn't have a cent in his pocket and thought "I didn't need any when I was with Jesus", but things have changed now. He knew how to catch fish and could go back to doing that for his living. Well, Jesus had other plans. While they were all in the boat fishing with Peter, Jesus appeared and had the start of breakfast going on a campfire on the beach. Once again the disciples had caught nothing while out fishing. When Jesus, unrecognizable to them at the time, told them to cast their net on the other side of the boat, they caught 153 large fish. It was then that John realized it was Jesus. It's almost comical as Jesus patiently waited for them to haul the fish in. He gave Peter a chance to undo the three times he denied even knowing Jesus at the High Priests house and declare before the others that he loved Jesus. Jesus began here to give direction to Peter and the other disciples as to what their lives would look like as a foretaste leading into the next "chapter" in their lives. That is where the book of The Acts of the Apostles continues as Luke documents this new "Chapter" and the paths those same disciples would take in starting and building up the new Christian Church.

JESUS OF NAZARETH

Thursday evenings – November 21, January 16,
February 20, March 20 and April 10.
6:00 p.m.
Soup and Sandwich

The mini-series was released in 1977, but I still think it is one of the best. The director set out to film the life of Christ with a $12 million budget for an on-location production in Morocco and Tunisia. He took over two years to prepare before filming began in September of 1975. A panel of Distinguished theologians and Biblical scholars served as his advisors and helped Zeffirelli not only aim for, but achieve, a high degree of historical accuracy—not only in the period of sets and costumes, but in the many, many details that distinguish this version of Jesus life on film from any other ever made.

We invite anyone who would like to join us to come to church on Thursday evenings at 6:00 p.m., view a portion of the film and discuss it. Soup and Sandwich will be provided. A free will donation will be taken to cover the cost of food. If you would like, bring a side dish or dessert.

Tickets: $30

Age Recommendation: 6 and up

Kick off the holiday season early this year by joining the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra and Festival Choir of Madison as a favorite holiday tradition. Written in just 24 days by George Frideric Handel, the Messiah is considered the most performed classical piece of music worldwide. Although based on religious texts, the message remains universal, and Handel intended it to be performed in the concert hall. For this performance, the orchestra and choir are joined by soloists: Sarah Lawrence, soprano, Sadie Cheslak, alto, Gene Stenger, tenor, and Timothy Jones, bass.

Christmas Tree Decorating in the Narthex and Sanctuary

On Sunday, November 24th we will be decorating the trees in the Narthex and in the Sanctuary. This is a fun event for all. Please stop by and help put a few ornaments on the trees or consider helping out as a family to put on lights and ornaments. This has become a fun tradition each year and is a great way to get into the holiday spirit. We start immediately following the second service around 9:45 a.m. and it usually takes about an hour to decorate both trees. We hope to see you all there.

CLC Quilters filled the Sanctuary with Quilts

This wonderful group of ladies made 154 quilts this past year that were laid out in the Sanctuary on Quilt Sunday. The quilts are put over the pews so that the congregation would have an opportunity to look at the beautiful workmanship and even purchase a quilt. During the week of quilt Sunday 37 total quilts were sold. The money from the sale of these quilts benefits two things. First, the quilters use the money to pay for any cost of shipping out all of the Lutheran World Relief kits. Second, the money is used to purchase things like the batting and materials that go into the quilts. Thanks to their hard work 117 quilts were packed up and will be given to people throughout the country and world that need them.

Music in Ministry

Our Hymn of Praise in November is a song included in one of our new hymnals, "10,000 Reasons (Bless the Lord)" written by English worship singer-songwriter Matt Redman and Swedish singer Jonas Myrin. In 2013, the song won two Grammy Awards.

The song makes the case for "10,000 reasons for my heart to find" to praise God. The inspiration for the song came through the opening verse of Psalm 103: "Praise the Lord, my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name".

Redman recalled the song came together really quickly. The lyric reiterates how "we live beneath an unceasing flow of goodness, kindness, greatness, and holiness, and every day we're given reason after reason why the Lord is so completely and utterly worthy of our highest and best devotion".

I hope the refrain sticks with you throughout the week:

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
O my soul, worship his holy name.
Sing like never before, O my soul.
I'll worship your holy name.
